LONG SHOTS WIN AT BRIGHTON

BILL DALY'S COLONSAY TAKES THE HANDICAP.

Gay Boy Wins in Fast Time for Six Furlongs-Divination, at 10 to 3. Trims The Southerner-Cincipnatus First for Terry McGovern-one Favorite Wins.

When the races at Brighton were over yes terday afternoon the crowd was suffering from a severe attack of the blues. What had appeared to be a fairly easy card had turned out to be a delusion and a snare, for long shots went over the plate with distressing regularity, not a favorite coming home i front until the last race. It was delightful weather for racing and nearly 15,000 persons went to the track by the sea to enjoy a typical summer outing. No stakes were down for decision, but six overnight events filled well and provided much spectacular sport.

"Father Bill" Daly was responsible for wide spread anguish when his three-year-old colt Colonsay won the $1,200 handicap at a mile and a furlong. Fuller had the mount the colt carrying 102 pounds. On his last two races Colonsay was figured nowhere by the public, but he was backed just the same and made good in startling fushion. by the public, but he was backed just the same and made good in startling fashion. There was as much as 10 to 1 against the Daly colt at the close. The public made W. R. Condon a hot favorite at 6 to 5, also taking Sambo at 16 to 5 and Cogswell at sixes. Colonsay took the rail and the track as soon as the barrier let them go and was never caught, aithough Sambo made a gallant attempt in the run up the backstretch. Condon tried it, too, in the homestretch, Redfern pushing him to the limit, but Colonsay, in a drive, beat him a length in 153 2-5. Condon finishing a head before Bar Le Duc, 20 to 1, who came with a rare burst of speed in the last furlong.

The opening event, for two-year-olds at six furlongs, was a sockdolager for the form players, who thought that 2 to 5 against R. W. Walden's The Southerner was like finding money in the street. But the Mexican Stable's Divination, a filly by Horoscope—White Rose, a 10 to 1 shot, upset everything by making a runaway of it from start to finish. The southerner was slow to begin, but when Gamon got the son of The Commoner in his stride he went after the leader with such persistence that Hicks had to ride Divination out to win by a length and a half from the favorite, who was three lengths before J. B. Haggin's October Flower, 50 to 1. The winner's time was 113.

The fastest time of the meeting for six furlongs was hung up in the second event, a highweight handicap. Fred debbard's behind Gay Boy, and beating Ingold for the place. Operator, the favorite, was soundly bedten.

The fastest time of the meeting for six furlongs was hung up in the second event, a highweight handicap. Fred Gebhard's four-year-old colt Gay Boy, with 125 pounds up, covered the distance in 1:12 4-5, the track record being 1:12, made by Lux Casta last year with 1:1 pounds. Bullman rode Gay Boy, who was at 8 to 1, and the colt run the quarter in 0:23 4-5, the half in 0:47 2-5, and the five-eighths in 0:59. This pace killed off Demurrer, who had been hammered down to fours and who hung on gamely until the last sixteenth pole was reached. Then G. Whittier, 10 to 1, and lingold, 4 to 1, rushed up, the former finishing a length and a half behind Gay Boy, and beating lingold for the place. Operator, the favorite, was soundly bedten.

H. F. Meyer's Sailor Knot, a neglected 15 to 1 shot, dazed his owner and the crowd by taking the third race for two-year-olds at six furlongs with ease. Cochran let him down at the head of the stretch, where he ran over the Lotos Stable's Ishlana, the favorite, and beat her a length and a half in 114-5. A similar distance back Shertcake, Silent Water and Tender Crest followed heads apart.

Terry McGovern's Cincinnatus, 12 to 1, ran off with the fifth event for platers at a mile and a sixteenth. He showed the way from the barrier and won cleverly by three lengths from T. D. Sullivan's Homestead, 6 to 1. The latter was ridden by Fuller, who cut off Daisy Green, the even money favorite, at the start, so that she never had a chance to get up. Homestead beat Lord Advocate, 15 to 1, for the place. The time was 1:47.

Burns came to the rescue of the talent with Hyland, the 6 to 5 favorite, in the last race, for maidens at a mile and a sixteenth. Fuller had Aminte, 10 to 1, in front clear into the stretch, where both Hyland and King Carter, 15 to 1, passed the Farandole mare under a drive. Hyland had a length and a half over King Carter, who beat Aminte a head. The race was timed in 1:483-5.

Hildreth Changes His Mind About Sendi

the Horse Home at the Last Moment. CHICAGO, July 24.-S. C. Hildreth returned to-day from Brighton Beach and set at est the report that McChesney would be shipped to Chicago. "McChesney is now at Saratoga ready to meet all comers and never was better in his life." said Hildreth. The injury to his foot was only a slight one, and caused little or no lameness. He grabbed himself on the off forefoot in his work-out, and as he had a hard task before him to defeat Waterboy, Mr. Smathers and myself, at the advice of the veterinary, and myself, at the advice of the veterinary, concluded not to send him to the post. He could have run, however, despite the injury, as it was a slight affair. It healed at once and he will be ready to race at the Saratoga meeting. I never saw a horse ship better. He paid no attention to the strange surroundings and showed no signs of car fright. The people in the East are simply crazy to have the match race between McChesney and Waterboy, and they will not be satisfied until it is run.

will not be satisfied until it is run. "At first I did intend to bring McChesney to Chicago, but at the last moment he looked so well and the wound had healed looked so well and the wound had healed in such good shape and the people were so anxious to have the match race that they would have been tempted to kidnap Mc-Chesney and keep him there had we at-tempted to send him away. When he meets Waterboy he will be ready for the race of his life, and his Western friends can rely on getting a run for their money. MORRIS PROTESTS BIRCH BROOM. Asks for Investigation of Oaks Winner's Ownership.

Green B. Morris, owner of Gravina, who ran second to Birch Broom in the Brighton Oaks on Thursday, has protested the race to the stewards on the ground that Birch Broom's ownership is in doubt. Mr. Morris wants to know why Birch Broom has been running in the West in the name of Street & Co. and yet carried the colors of James R. Keene in the Oaks. It is understood that "Doc" Street simply leased Birch Broom's running qualin the name and interests of her real owner, Mr. Keene. Street was unable to train her here and she was placed in the care of Louis Stuart, who has charge of the Keene horses t Brighton in the absence of James Rowe. who is at Saratoga. Mr. Morris has asked for an investigation pending the payment of the stake to the winner. Birch Broom, by the way, will be sold at auction at the Brighton track to-day, together with other horses in training belonging to various own-

Jockey Fuller was inclined to be unruly yesterday. He caused a lot of trouble at the post. Starter Fitzgerald set him down for one day for misconduct in the third race and also fined him $100 for disobedience in the fourth. In the fifth race Fuller was guilty of some glaring rough riding. He cut off Daisy Green at the start and interfered with several other horses during the race. After he had left the scales the stewards called him into the stand and reprimanded him for his foul work. There seemed to be an epidemic of disorder among the boys during the afternoon, for Haack, Creamer, Wilkerson, Gannon and Connell all suffered fines of $25 each.

Fuller landed four mounts in the money yesterday.

DETROIT, July 24.—Detroit and Chicago battled for fourteen innings to-day, the Tigers winning just as darkness was setting in. Detroit should have won the game, 1 to 0 in nine innings, but Mullin was wild and virtually handed three runs out. After Barrett had tripled and accred in the first, Detroit could do nothing with Patterson until the ninth, when a triple and three singles made two runs and tied the accre. Klasinger replaced Mullin and did great work. Patterson weakened under the strain, and singles by McGuire and Carr, with a couple of outs sandwiched in, made the winning tally in the fourteenth.

 PHILADELPHIA, (N. L.), 3: NEW YORK (N.L.), 0. PHILADELPHIA, (N. L.), 3: NEW YORK (N.L.), 0. PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—It was a pitchers duel between Mathewson and Duggleby to-day and at the finish the honors were in favor of the local twirler. New York made but five hits, and of the five only two were clean-cut affairs. The fielding of both teams was exceptionally clean. In the second inning Keister hit a slow one to Lauder, who made a wild throw to first, Keister going to third, and scoring subsequently on Barry's out. In the eighth, after Gleason had been retired, Wolverton and Keister singled. The former was forced by Barry, who stole second. Douglass dropped one safety between the infield and outfield, and Wolverton and Barry scored. New York got but two men as far as third. Detroit, 4: Chicago, 3-

BOSTON (A. L.), 5; NEW YORK (A. L.), 2.

Manager Griffith undertook to do the pitching for the New York Americans yesterday. "Grif" was all right for just three innings—so was his team. But in the fourth inning the Bostons jumped in and batted Griffith out of the box. All of his well known strategy was insufficient to stop the rush of hits that came from the Bostons' bats once the latter began applying the wood in earnest. Griffith presented himself with a seat on the bench after that, and Howell pitched the last five innings. There was no such concentration of hits off him as off Griffith, but enough to make their presence felt. Five of the twelve Hub hits were selected from Howell's stock.

The New Yorks were in the lead up to the time the Bostons derailed Griffith, then the former became a comatose crew. Keeler's bunt, two outs and Williams's slasher past Collins gave them a run in the first inning. McFarland's triple to right and Ferris's bad throw, the ball bounding off McFarland's shoulder, accounted for New York's second and last run. It was a prosperous beginning, but soon the shoe was on the other foot. AS LOHGI.

EVEN THEN THE FAVORITE FAILS TO WIN AT DETROIT.

Judges' Suspicion Results in All Bets Being Declared Off-Trilby Direct Takes Chamber of Commerce Consolation-Tame Racing on Grand Circuit.

DETROIT, July 24.-Small fields, tame racing and a light attendance characterized today's Grand Circuit racing at Grosse Point The best race of the day was the Chamber of Commerce Consolation, with seven starters, Page Hal, driven by Geers, was favorite, but he broke in the first heat and was shut out. Trilby Direct won the race on steadiness and speed, being forced into the 2:10 class by the persistent pacing of Kingmore. Billy Buck, Geers's Alabama trotter, won his second race in two days by beating a cheap field in the 2:18 trot. In both heats he marched home without a word of urging, while the rest were fighting gamely for second money.

The public burned up its money by backing Ellenwood to win the 2:26 trot at 50 to 20. The rough-gaited mare won the first heat easily, lost the second by inches to Monroe salisbury's Monroe, and finished behind the flag in the third heat in consequence of a bad break at the half. Monroe showed class and proved the victor.

Nonami carried the money in the 2.08 pace, in which only three started. After pacing a heat dead with Carthage Girl, Nonami went on and outbrushed the Girl twice in the drive home.

Heats were split up in the closing race. Heats were split up in the closing race. Darky, the favorite, narrowly escaped defeat by Theron Powers in the first, and was outfooted by Joe Rhea in the second. The judges, scenting a job, warned Nuckols and put Curry up behind Darky for the third heat, which was a hard battle between Darky, Joe Rhea and Theron Powers, the latter winning by a head. Only these three appeared for the fourth heat. Theron Powers was a 1-to-8 favorite, with Joe Rhea at 3 to 1 and Darky at 4 to 1. In a hot finish Theron Powers won heat and race, with the favorite second. All bets and pools on the result of the race were declared off and Proctor was suspended for thirty days and fined $200 and Nuckols was fined $200.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24 .- Advices from

Harbin Springs say that Champion Jeffries must lie off till Monday because of an injury to his left leg, which may result in blood poisoning. Fitz's little bear bit Jeffries on the leg, and then in playing handball, the place was hit by Kennedy. To add to this, Jeff sprained his leg and skinned his knee at handball. Jeffries says his leg does not bother him, but he has obeyed the doctor's orders and will take a rest for three days.

LAWN TENNIS.

Wrenn Brothers, Who Are to Defend Davis

Cup, Beaten in Longwood Doubles. BOSTON, July 24.-Robert D. and George L. Wrenn, Jr., the international team who are to defend the Davis cup against the English team early in August, were defeated to-day in their match in the Eastern doubles championship by William A Larned and Beals C. Wright. The latter pair shortly in the second round of the same tournament and were also defeated after a hard-fought match. The scores were 8-6, 2-6, 6-1

In their match with the Wrenns Larned and Wright played the best double tennis that has been seen on the local courts for a long time, and in many particulars outplayed their opponents. The match was left unfinished on Tuesday with the score two sets to one in favor of Larned and Wright and the games 6 to 5 in their favor in the fourth. The Wrenns started off in fine style and got the first game, making the score 6 all, and won the next two, capturing the set. Both teams used great care and no opportunity was lost in the deciding set. Larned and his partner were the steadler. With the games four all Larned and his partner won the next two and the set. The scores of the match were 8-6, 8-6, 4-6, 6-8, 6-4.

Larned and Wright against Ward and Ware was a gruelling contest. Five sets were necessary and brought out a rare display of tennis. Two matches in the fourth round of the singles and contests in the doubles and handicap singles event were played during long time, and in many particulars outplayed and handicap singles event were played during

QUAKERS BAT POORLY. With P. F. Warner's Eleven.

Special Cable Desputch to THE SUN. between P. F. Warner's team and the Gentlemen of Philadelphia was continued to-day at Kennington Oval in much improved weather. The wicket, however, was soft during the vistors' innings, and they found considerable difficulty in negotiating the delivery of B.

J. T. Bosanquet and Tarrant.
The Philadelphians opened their innings with J. B. King and N. Z. Graves. The latter 5 5 5 6 was quickly disposed of. Then ensued a regular procession to and from the clubhouse and 7 wickets went down for 35 runs.
The total was advanced to 82 before the innings came to an end

With a lead of 105 runs, P. L. Warner's team

Gardner Sees Himself Fight Against Root. George Gardner of Lowell saw himself fight Jack Root of Chicago all over again fight Jack Root of Chicago all over again last night at the Grand Opera House, this city. A private view of the fight on July 4 was held through the medium of moving pictures. The reproduction lasted over an hour and was voted a success by those present. The films are the best taken of a mill in the past seven years, not barring the Corbett-Fitzsimmons pictures.

If any foul was committed by either man the pictures do not show it.
